Armed men steal luxury car

November 14, 2007 - 6:47AM

Armed and masked men have threatened a man in Sydney's west before stealing his performance car, police say.

The man was leaving his automotive business on Egerton Street, Silverwater, about 6.30pm (AEDT) yesterday when he was approached by three men, each with their face covered.

One of the men, believed to be armed with a firearm, threatened the victim and demanded the keys to his 2006 model RS4 Audi sedan.

The men stole the Audi and the victim called police a short time later.

Detectives are now looking for the metallic-blue Audi, registration GB 735, and three men described as about 180 cm tall, each with a medium build.
