Car thieves lure owner out of car

November 21, 2007 - 6:06AM

A 47-year-old man was pushed to the ground before having his car stolen at a shopping centre in Sydney's north-west.

Police said the man got out of his Nissan Skyline at the shopping centre carpark on Anthony St, West Ryde after the Mercedes behind him began beeping its horn repeatedly about 8.45am (AEDT) yesterday.

A Mercedes passenger then got into the Skyline and drove off, police said.

"The 47-year-old man ran to his car, but was then pushed to the ground before his car drove off," police said.

One of the men is described as 30-35-years-old, 175cm, clean shaven with short dark hair.
